

Sittaram Dhu. Kett Sam
Charlotte Fredrica Cook

To D. C. Smyth Esq.
Magistrate of the Zillah Court of Hooghly

Sir

With reference to ^{my} letter to your address dated the 9th instant I beg to inform you that Mr. Samuel Search one of my officers ~~has~~ arrested the ~~above~~ Defendant within ~~the~~ ^{your} District and ~~has~~ ^{has} informed me ~~that~~ but ~~the~~ Henry Oakeley the Judge of Hooghly not only interfered and effected the interference with the ~~case~~ but of the party but therefore that you will be pleased your officers to assist mine in to order ~~me~~ to retaking the ~~case~~ Defendant under the writ of Habeas Corpus in the ~~above~~ whereupon ~~the~~ may be secured Cause - I have the honor to be

Sir

~~Yours~~
Yours truly
S.

I and beg to add that ~~they~~ for they will be justified in using any force which circumstances may render necessary -

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is mirrored across a horizontal fold line, suggesting it was written on the reverse side of the paper. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and yellowed.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is mirrored across a horizontal fold line, suggesting it was written on the reverse side of the paper. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and yellowed.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is mirrored across a horizontal fold line, suggesting it was written on the reverse side of the paper. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and yellowed.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is mirrored across a horizontal fold line, suggesting it was written on the reverse side of the paper. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and yellowed.